

Improving efficacy/effectiveness

Improving safety and tolerability

Extending treatment options in a new indication with unmet medical need

Patient experience related to the therapy

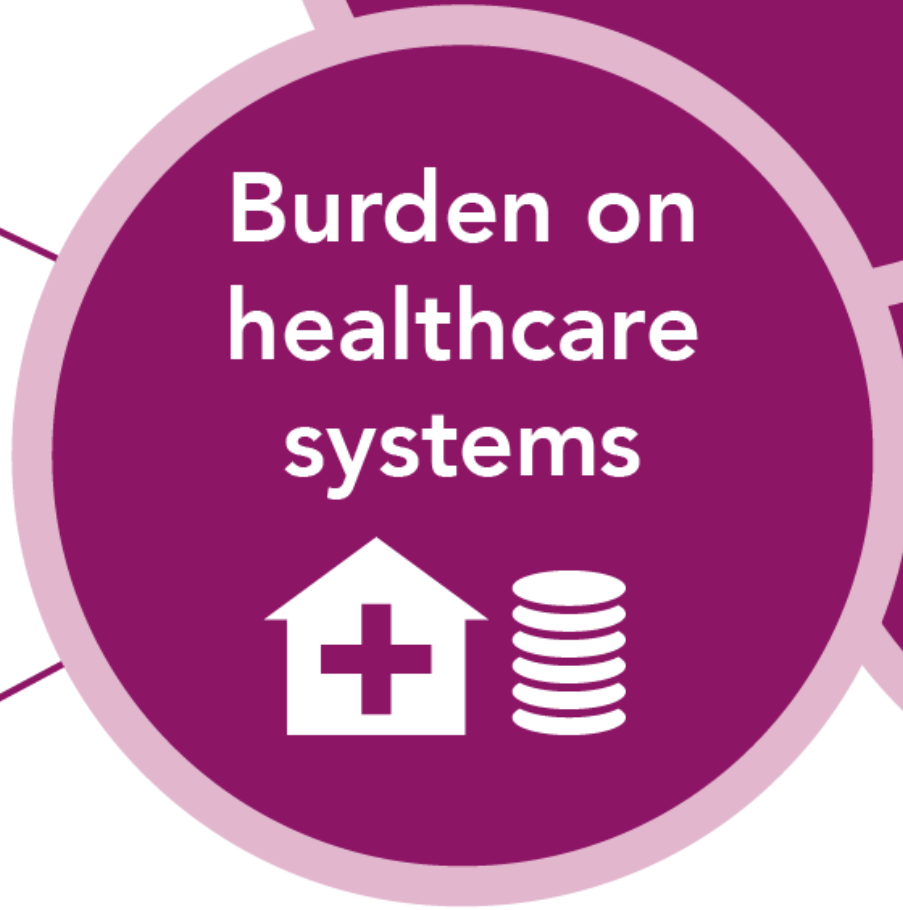

Meeting the needs of individuals or of patient subpopulations

Quality of life

Healthcare resources utilisation, costs or efficiency

Adherence and persistence

Patient's economic burden

Technological improvement with logistical considerations

Economic and health burden of patient's caregiver